Prepared Spells. Each time you finish a long rest, you can prepare four 1st-level spells to make them available for you to cast, choosing from the 1st-level spells listed on the back of this sheet. In addition to those four, you always have these two spells prepared, thanks to the Life Domain: bless and cure wounds.

Write your prepared spells here:

- bless
- cure wounds

Spell Slots. You have two 1st-level spell slots you can use to cast your prepared spells. You can use them to cast two different spells or to cast the same spell twice. You regain your expended spell slots when you finish a long rest.

You can keep track of your expended spell slots by checking them off in the Spellcasting table on this sheet’s other side, where each spell slot is represented by a checkbox.

Cantrips. You know a few cantrips, which are spells you cast without expending spell slots. You know the following cantrips, each of which is detailed in the rulebook:

- light
- thaumaturgy
- sacred flame

Spell Attacks and Saving Throws. When a creature makes a saving throw to resist one of your spells, the DC of the saving throw is 13. When you make a spell attack, you roll 1d20 + 5 to see if you hit. These numbers are based on your spellcasting ability, which is Wisdom.

- Spell save DC = 13
- Spell attack roll = 1d20 + 5

---

Proficiencies

You have the following proficiencies. The rulebook explains what proficiency means. Saving Throws. Your saving throw proficiencies are indicated by a ♦ in the Saving Throws list on the left.

- Strength, Dexterity, Constitution, Intelligence, Wisdom, Charisma

Skills. Your skill proficiencies are indicated by a ♦ in the Skills list on the left.

Equipment. You have proficiency with all armor, shields, simple weapons, battleaxes, and warhammers.

Languages

You can speak, read, and write Common, Dwarvish, Elvish, and Goblin.

Attacks

You start with the following weapons, which you can use to make attacks. Mace. In melee (against a target within 5 feet of you), you can attack with your mace. Roll 1d6 + 2 bludgeoning damage.

Handaxe. In melee (against a target within 5 feet of you), you can attack with a handaxe. You can also throw a handaxe at a target up to 20 feet away, or up to 60 feet away with disadvantage on the attack roll. In either case, roll 1d20 + 4 to see if you hit. If you do, the target takes 1d6 + 2 slashing damage.

Cleric

As a cleric, you wield magic given by a god. You revere the deity Marthammor Duin, who watches over travelers and outcasts. The cleric class gives you the following features.

- Divine Domain. You draw magic from a divine domain—a sphere of magical influence—associated with your deity. Your domain is Life. This domain gives you features elsewhere on the character sheet.

Hill Dwarf

Dwarves are solid and hardy like the stone they are said to be created from, weathering the centuries with endurance. As a hill dwarf, you have the following traits.

- Darkvision. You can see in dim light within 60 feet of you as if it were bright light and in darkness in that radius as if it were dim light. You discern colors in that darkness only as shades of gray.
- Dwarven Toughness. Your hit point maximum increases by 1, and it increases by 1 every time you gain a level (included in your hit points).
- Heavy Armor. Your speed is not reduced by wearing heavy armor.

Your Soldier Background

You trained as a soldier on the island of Mintarn and joined a mercenary company. You traveled to the city of Neverwinter with your company to serve in both the army and city watch. Over time, you grew disillusioned with many of your fellow soldiers. They seemed to enjoy their authority at the expense of the people they’re supposed to protect.

Your background shaped your character in important ways. You learned several languages in the course of your military career (shown in “Languages” above). Your skill proficiencies in Athletics and Intimids (see “Proficiencies” above). Your speed is not reduced by wearing heavy armor.

Making the Character Yours

Follow these steps to make this character uniquely yours:

1. Choose a name and write it in the “Character Name” space on the front of this sheet. Your character’s name can be anything you like, perhaps drawing from a real-world culture or a work of literature.
2. Decide what the character looks like and determine your character’s gender. You decide your character’s height, weight, age, and coloration (eyes, hair, and skin). You can use the art on this page for inspiration or choose your own direction. You also might want to give your character other physical characteristics, such as a scar, a limp, spectacles, or a tattoo.
3. Flesh out your character’s personality, and read about your character’s alignment in the rulebook (you may choose a different alignment from among the options there). The goal is to choose traits and mannerisms for your character that you’ll enjoy.

Gaining Levels

The DM will tell you when you reach 2nd level and then 3rd level. When you reach a new level, you gain the features below for that level.

Hit Dice and Hit Points

With each level you gain, you gain one additional Hit Die (d8), which you can use to heal yourself when you take a short rest (explained in the rulebook). When you level up, add the new Hit Die to the Hit Dice box on this sheet, and add 1d8 + 3 to your hit point maximum (this includes the benefit of Dwarven Toughness).

Spellcasting Advancement

You gain access to more spells as you gain levels. You can prepare a number of spells equal to your level + your Wisdom modifier, as shown in the Spellcasting table. You also gain more spell slots.

2nd-Level Features

- Channel Divinity. You can channel divine magic from your deity, choosing one of two effects: Turn Undead or Preserve Life. When you use Channel Divinity, choose which of these effects to create; you must then finish a short or long rest to use Channel Divinity again.
- Turn Undead. As an action, you present your holy symbol, and each Undead that can see or hear you within 30 feet of you must succeed on a DC 13 Wisdom saving throw or be turned for 1 minute or until it takes any damage. A turned creature must spend its turns trying to move as far away from you as it can, and it can’t willingly end its move in a space within 30 feet of you. It also can’t take reactions. For its action, it can use only the Dash action or try to escape from an effect that prevents it from moving. If it has nowhere it can move, the creature can use the Dodge action.
- Preserve Life. As an action, you present your holy symbol, and each one or more creatures within 30 feet of you that you can see and hear must succeed on a DC 13 Wisdom saving throw or die. A creature with a hit point maximum of 30 or less regains hit points equal to 2 + the spell’s level.

3rd-Level Features

- Spells. You can now prepare and cast 2nd-level spells. In addition to the spells you choose to prepare, you always have two extra spells prepared: lesser restoration and spiritual weapon.
- Preserve Life. When you use Preserve Life, you can now distribute up to 15 hit points.

Cleric Spell List

1st-Level Spells

- Bless
- Command
- Cure wounds
- Detect magic (ritual)
- Guiding bolt
- Healing word
- Protection from evil and good
- Sanctuary
- Shield of faith
- Spiritual weapon
- Hold person
- Lesser restoration
- Turn Undead

2nd-Level Spells

- Spiritual weapon
- Hold person
- Lesser restoration
- Turn Undead

Ritual Casting

You can cast a cleric spell as a ritual if that spell has the ritual tag and you have the spell prepared. The rulebook explains rituals.

Disciple of Life

Thanks to the Life Domain, your healing spells are particularly effective. Whenever you restore hit points to a creature with a spell of 1st level or higher, the creature regains additional hit points equal to 2 + the spell’s level.

Saving Throws. Your saving throw proficiencies are indicated by a + in the Saving Throws list on the left.

Skills. Your skill proficiencies are indicated by a + in the Skills list on the left.

Equipment. You have proficiency with all armor, shields, simple weapons, and martial weapons.

Languages

You can speak, read, and write Common, Dwarvish, Elvish, and Halfling.

Attacks

You start with the following weapons, which you can use to make attacks.

Greatsword: In melee (against a target within 5 feet of you), you can attack with your greatsword. Roll 1d20 + 3 to see if you hit. If you do, the target takes 2d6 + 1 slashing damage.

Longbow: You can shoot your longbow at a target up to 150 feet away, or up to 600 feet with disadvantage on the attack roll. Roll 1d20 + 7 to see if you hit. If you do, the target takes 1d8 + 3 piercing damage.

Fighting Style: Archery. You gain a +2 bonus to attack rolls you make with ranged weapons. This bonus is already included in your attack with your longbow.

Wood Elf

Elves are a people of otherworldly grace, long-lived and passionate. In the earliest days of the multiverse, the first wood elves fell in love with the forests of the world, and they mystically took on characteristics of those woodland realms. Your fleetness of foot and your ability to hide in foliage or other natural phenomena are part of that mystical adaptation.

As a wood elf, you have the following traits.

Darkvision. You can see in dim light within 60 feet of you as if it were bright light and in darkness in that radius as if it were dim light. You discern colors in that darkness only as shades of gray.

Fey Ancestry. You have advantage on saving throws you make to avoid or end the charmed condition on yourself.

Trance. Elves don’t need to sleep, and magic can’t put you to sleep. You can finish a long rest in 4 hours if you spend those hours in a trancelike meditation, during which you retain consciousness.

Mask of the Wild. You can take the Hide action even when you are only lightly obscured by foliage, heavy rain, falling snow, mist, or other natural phenomena.

Your Folk Hero Background

Your parents lived in the prosperous village of Thundertree, east of the city of Neverwinter and at the edge of the Neverwinter Wood. But when nearby Mount Hotenow erupted thirty years ago, your parents fled, perhaps carrying you in your infancy (depending on how old you are). Your family drifted from village to village around the region, finding work as laborers where they could. Your background shaped your character in important ways. You learned the languages of several different peoples (shown in “Languages” on the front of this sheet). Your skill proficiencies in Animal Handling and Survival also reflect your upbringing, working with animals and getting by in the natural world.

You've spent the last few years in Neverwinter as a carpenter working at the city’s bustling docks. But it’s clear to you and everyone around you that you are destined for much more. You stood up to an abusive ship captain once, so other dockworkers look up to you. Some day, you’ll come into your own. You’ll be a hero.

Personal Goal: Determine Your Destiny. In the remote cloister of Dragon’s Rest lives an old sage who is supposed to possess great wisdom—or possibly supernatural insight. The cloister holds a temple to the dragon god Bahamut, who is a patron of heroes and a champion of justice. Maybe Elder Runara can help you determine exactly what your heroic destiny is and set you on the right path to fulfill it, so you can become the hero you know you’re meant to be.

Making the Character Yours

Follow these steps to make this character uniquely yours:

1. Choose a name and write it in the “Character Name” space on the front of this sheet. Your character’s name can be anything you like, perhaps drawing from a real-world culture or a work of literature.
2. Decide what you look like and determine your character’s gender. You decide your character’s height, weight, age, and coloration (eyes, hair, and skin). You can use the art on this page for inspiration or choose your own direction. You also might want to give your character a memorable physical characteristic, such as a scar, a limp, spectacles, or a tattoo. You can write notes about your character’s appearance in the “Notes” space below.
3. Flesh out your character’s personality, and read about your character’s alignment in the rulebook (you may choose a different alignment from among the options there). The goal is to choose traits and mannerisms for your character that you’ll enjoy.

Gaining Levels

The DM will tell you when you reach 2nd level and then 3rd level. When you reach a new level, you gain the features below for that level.

Hit Dice and Hit Points

With each level you gain, you gain one additional Hit Die (d10), which you can use to heal yourself when you take a short rest (explained in the rulebook). When you level up, add the new Hit Die to the Hit Dice box on this sheet, and add 1d10 to your hit point maximum.

2nd-Level Feature

Action Surge. You can push yourself beyond your normal limits for a moment. On your turn, you can take one additional action. Once you use this feature, you must finish a short or long rest before you can use it again.

3rd-Level Feature

Improved Critical. Your weapon attacks score a critical hit on a roll of 19 or 20.
Paladin

Race: Human
Class: Paladin
Alignment: Lawful Good
Level: 1st
Background: Noble
Size: Medium
Class Abilities:
- Chain mail*
- Battleaxe
- Shield
- 5 javelins
- Holy symbol
- Backpack
- Bedroll
- Mess kit
- Tinderbox
- 10 torches
- 10 days of rations

*While wearing this armor, you have disadvantage on Dexterity (Stealth) checks.

Equipment
- Holy symbol
- Holy water
- Holy book
- Holy vestments
- Holy relics

Proficiencies

Language: You can speak, read, and write Common, Draconic, Dwarvish, and Giant.

Attacks:
- Battleaxe: In melee (against a target within 5 feet of you), you can attack with your battleaxe. Roll \(1d20 + 5\) to see if you hit. If you do, the target takes \(1d8 + 3\) slashing damage, or \(1d10 + 3\) slashing damage if you wield the battleaxe with two hands (which means dropping your shield).

- Javelin: In melee (against a target within 5 feet of you), you can attack with a javelin. You can also throw a javelin at a target up to 30 feet away, or up to 120 feet away with disadvantage on the attack roll. In either case, roll \(1d20 + 5\) to see if you hit. If you do, the target takes \(1d6 + 3\) piercing damage.

Paladin:

Paladins swear oaths to gods, ancient orders, and great causes. A paladin’s oath is a powerful bond that turns a devout warrior into a blessed champion. You swore your oath to the god Bahamut, the Platinum Dragon, who is a patron of heroes and a champion of justice.

The Paladin Class:

- Divine Sense. As an action, you can open your senses to the presence of strong evil and powerful good. Until the end of your next turn, you know the location of any Celestial, Fiend, or Undead within 60 feet of you that is not behind total cover. You know the type of any being whose presence you sense, but not its identity. Within the same radius, you also detect the presence of any place or object that has been consecrated or desecrated.

- Lay on Hands. Your blessed touch can heal wounds. You have a pool of healing power that replenishes when you take a long rest. With that pool, you can restore a total of 5 hit points. As an action, you can touch a creature and draw power from the pool to restore a number of hit points to that creature, up to the maximum amount remaining in your pool.

- Alternatively, you can expend 5 hit points from your pool of healing to cure the target of one disease or neutralize one poison affecting it. You can cure multiple diseases and neutralize multiple poisons with a single use of Lay on Hands, expending hit points separately for each one.

- This feature has no effect on Undead or Constructs.

About Humans:

Humans are the most numerous people of the Forgotten Realms. They live alongside elves, dwarves, halflings, and other peoples in villages, towns, and cities across the world. Human adventurers are often motivated to leave a lasting legacy.
Your Noble Background

Your family is no stranger to wealth, power, and privilege. In the glory days of Neverwinter, your parents ruled the county of Corlinn Hill, located in the hills northeast of the city. But Mount Hotenow erupted thirty years ago, devastating Neverwinter and erasing Corlinn Hill. Instead of growing up on an estate, you were raised in a small townhouse in Waterdeep. As an adult, you stand to inherit only a title.

Your background shaped your character. You learned the languages of dwarves and giants from a childhood tutor (shown in "Languages" on the front of this sheet), and your skill proficiencies in History and Persuasion reflect your education in history and etiquette.

Since swearing your oath to Bahamut, you’ve returned to Neverwinter and have been a champion to those who are overlooked by the institutions that exist to protect them. Recently, your resolve has been shaken by corruption in the city guard and ruling aristocrats.

Personal Goal: Rejuvenating Pilgrimage. Seeking to reinvigorate your resolve, you learned of a remote cloister, Dragon’s Rest, on a tiny island. The cloister holds a temple to the dragon god Bahamut. You feel drawn to contemplate your place in the world there.

Making the Character Yours

Follow these steps to make this character uniquely yours:

1. Choose a name and write it in the "Character Name" space on the front of this sheet. Your character’s name can be anything you like, perhaps drawing from a real-world culture or a work of literature.
2. Decide what you look like and determine your character’s gender. You decide your character’s height, weight, age, and coloration (eyes, hair, and skin). You can use the art on this page for inspiration or choose your own direction. You also might want to give your character a memorable physical characteristic, such as a scar, a limp, spectacles, or a tattoo.
3. Flesh out your character’s personality, and read about your character’s alignment in the rulebook (you may choose a different alignment from among the options there). The goal is to choose traits and mannerisms for your character that you’ll enjoy.

Gaining Levels

The DM will tell you when you reach 2nd level and then 3rd level. When you reach a new level, you gain the features below for that level.

Hit Dice and Hit Points

With each level you gain, you gain one additional Hit Die (d10), which you can use to heal yourself when you take a short rest (explained in the rulebook). When you level up, add the new Hit Die to the Hit Dice box on this sheet, and add 1d10 + 2 to your hit point maximum.

2nd-Level Features

Prepared Spells. Each time you finish a long rest, you can prepare three 1st-level spells to make them available for you to cast, choosing from the 1st-level spells listed below. Write your prepared spells here:

Spell Slots. You have two 1st-level spell slots you can use to cast your prepared spells. You can use them to cast two different spells or to cast the same spell twice. You regain your expended spell slots when you finish a long rest. You can keep track of your expended spell slots by checking them off in the Spellcasting table, where each spell slot is represented by a checkbox.

Spell Attacks and Saving Throws. When a creature makes a saving throw to resist one of your spells, the DC of the saving throw is 12. When you make a spell attack, you roll 1d20 + 4 to see if you hit. These numbers are based on your spellcasting ability, which is Charisma.

- Spell save DC = 12
- Spell attack roll = 1d20 + 4

3rd-Level Features

Divine Health. The divine magic flowing through you makes you immune to disease.

Lay on Hands. The healing pool of Lay on Hands increases to 15.

Spells. You gain a spell slot, as shown in the Spellcasting table. In addition to the spells you choose to prepare, you always have two extra spells prepared: protection from evil and good and sanctuary.

Channel Divinity. You can channel divine magic from your oath, fueling one of two effects: Sacred Weapon or Turn the Unholy. When you use Channel Divinity, choose which of these effects to create; you must then finish a short or long rest to use Channel Divinity again:

- Sacred Weapon. As an action, you present your holy symbol and imbue one weapon that you are holding with positive energy. For 1 minute, you add +2 to attack rolls made with that weapon. The weapon also emits bright light in a 20-foot radius and dim light for 20 feet beyond that. If the weapon is not already magical, it becomes magical for the duration. You can end this effect on your turn as part of any other action. If you are no longer holding or carrying this weapon, or if you fall unconscious, this effect ends.

- Turn the Unholy. As an action, you present your holy symbol, and each Fiend or Undead that can see or hear you within 30 feet of you must succeed on a DC 12 Wisdom saving throw or be turned for 1 minute or until it takes any damage. A turned creature must spend its turns trying to move as far away from you as it can, and it can’t willingly ends its move in a space within 30 feet of you. It also can’t take reactions. For its action, it can use only the Dash action or try to escape from an effect that prevents it from moving. If it has nowhere it can move, the creature can use the Dodge action.

Bag of: Bag of 1,000 ball bearings
10 feet of string:
Bell: Bell
5 candles:
2 crowbars:
Pouch:

Proficiencies

You have the following proficiencies. The rulebook explains what proficiency means.

Saving Throws: Your saving throw proficiencies are indicated by a ♦ in the Saving Throws list on the left.

Skills: Your skill proficiencies are indicated by a ♦ in the Skills list on the left.

Equipment: You have proficiency with light armor, simple weapons, hand crossbows, longswords, rapiers, and short-swords. You also have proficiency with thieves’ tools.

Languages

You can speak, read, and write Common, Goblin, and Halfling.

Attacks

You start with the following weapons, which you can use to make attacks.

Dagger: In melee (against a target within 5 feet of you), you can attack with your dagger. You can also throw a dagger at a target up to 20 feet away, or up to 60 feet away with disadvantage on the attack roll. In either case, roll 1d20 + 5 to see if you hit. If you do, the target takes 1d4 + 3 piercing damage.

Shortbow: You can shoot your shortbow at a target up to 80 feet away, or up to 320 feet with disadvantage on the attack roll. Roll 1d20 + 5 to see if you hit. If you do, the target takes 1d6 + 3 piercing damage.

Rogue

Rogues develop broad expertise that few other characters can match. When it comes to battle, rogues prioritize cunning over brute strength, placing one precise strike exactly where the attack will hurt the most.

The rogue class gives you the following features.

Expertise

Your proficiency bonus is doubled for any ability check you make that uses the Stealth skill (the doubled bonus is included on your Skills list) or your proficiency with thieves’ tools.

Sneak Attack

Once per turn, when you hit a creature with a Dexterity-based attack (such as with your dagger or shortbow) and you have advantage on the attack roll, you can deal an extra 1d6 damage to your target. You don’t need advantage if another enemy of the target is within 5 feet of it and isn’t incapacitated. You can’t deal this extra damage, however, if you have disadvantage on the attack roll.

Thieves’ Cant

You know thieves’ cant, a secret mix of dialect, jargon, and code that allows you to hide messages in seemingly normal conversation. You also understand a set of secret signs and symbols used to convey short, simple, messages.

Lightfoot Halfling

Halflings are small folk, but they are blessed with luck and courage befitting the mightiest of dragons. Lightfoot halflings easily hide from notice, slipping around and behind larger folk, be they friend or foe.

As a lightfoot halfling, you have the following traits.

Lucky: When you roll a 1 on the d20 for an attack roll, ability check, or saving throw, you can reroll the d20 and must use the new roll.

Brave: You have advantage on saving throws you make to avoid or remove the frightened condition on yourself.

Halfling Nimbleness: You can move through the space of any creature that is of a size larger than yours.

Naturally Stealthy: You can attempt to hide when you are obscured by a creature that is at least one size larger than you.
Your Criminal Background

You fell in with a thieves’ guild called the Gilded Gallows at an early age. The guild has prospered in recent years, and its influence is spreading across the Sword Coast. You followed that expansion, hoping to find your fortune in the city of Neverwinter.

Your background shaped your character in important ways. You learned the use of thieves’ tools from scoundrels and gamblers (shown in “Proficiencies” on the front of this sheet) and picked up the Goblin language at the same time. Your skill proficiencies in Deception and Stealth also reflect your upbringing, talking your way out of trouble and skulking past unfriendly eyes.

Fortunes in Neverwinter have been fair but not the fast riches you hoped for. You heard a story from a smuggler about a high-ranking member of the Gilded Gallows who turned traitor, killed their partner, and fled with a sovereign’s ransom in treasure. Thanks to details you’ve picked up here and there that corroborate the story, you’re certain it’s more than just a rumor.

Personal Goal: Find the Lost Fortune. Whoever that Gilder was who skipped out with the gold, they’ve covered their tracks well. The trail went cold in Neverwinter, but recently you’ve learned of a remote island cloister called Dragon’s Rest. The cloister holds a temple to the dragon god Bahamut, who is a patron of heroes and a champion of justice. There is also a community of hermits who live there now, the perfect place to hide for someone wishing to escape their past. If that treasure’s there, you’ll find it.

Making the Character Yours

Follow these steps to make this character uniquely yours:

1. Choose a name and write it in the “Character Name” space on the front of this sheet. Your character’s name can be anything you like, perhaps drawing from a real-world culture or a work of literature.
2. Decide what you look like and determine your character’s gender. You decide your character’s height, weight, age, and coloration (eyes, hair, and skin). You can use the art on this page for inspiration or choose your own direction. You can write notes about your character’s appearance in the “Notes” space below.
3. Flesh out your character’s personality, and read about your character’s alignment in the rulebook (you may choose a different alignment from among the options there). The goal is to choose traits and mannerisms for your character that you’ll enjoy.

Gaining Levels

The DM will tell you when you reach 2nd level and then 3rd level. When you reach a new level, you gain the features below for that level.

Hit Dice and Hit Points

With each level you gain, you gain one additional Hit Die (d8), which you can use to heal yourself when you take a short rest (explained in the rulebook). When you level up, add the new Hit Die to the Hit Dice box on this sheet, and add $1d8 + 1$ to your hit point maximum.

2nd-Level Feature

Cunning Action. Your quick thinking and agility allow you to move and act quickly, so you can take a bonus action on each of your turns in combat. This action can be used only to take the Dash, Disengage, or Hide action.

3rd-Level Features

Second-Story Work. You gain the ability to climb faster than normal, so climbing no longer costs you extra movement. In addition, when you make a running jump, the distance you can cover increases by a number of feet equal to your Dexterity modifier.

Fast Hands. You can use the bonus action granted by your Cunning Action to make a Dexterity (Sleight of Hand) check, take the Use an Object action, or use your thieves’ tools to try to disarm a trap or open a lock.

Sneak Attack. You deal $2d6$ damage with your Sneak Attack, instead of $1d6$.

PROFICIENCIES

You have the following proficiencies. The rulebook explains what proficiency means.

Saving Throws. Your saving throw proficiencies are indicated by a ♦ in the Saving Throws list on the left.

Skills. Your skill proficiencies are indicated by ♦ in the Skills list on the left.

Equipment. You have proficiency with daggers, darts, light crossbows, longswords, quarterstaffs, shortbows, shortswords, and slings.

Languages. You can speak, read, and write Common, Celestial, Draconic, Dwarvish, and Elvish.

Attacks. Your spells are your best tool in combat, but you also have a weapon you can use.

Shortsword. In melee (against a target within 5 feet of you), you can attack with your shortsword. Roll 1d20 + 4 to see if you hit. If you do, the target takes 1d6 + 2 piercing damage.

Wizard.

Wizards are studious magic-users who wield spells fueled by the magic that permeates the cosmos. The lure of knowledge calls wizards out of the safety of their libraries into crumbling ruins and lost cities.

The wizard class gives you the following features.

Spellbook. You have a spellbook containing these 1st-level spells, each of which is detailed in the rulebook:
- Detect magic
- Shield
- Magic armor
- Sleep
- Magic missile
- Thunderwave

Prepared Spells. Whenever you finish a long rest, you can prepare four 1st-level spells to make them available for you to cast, choosing from the spells in your spellbook. Write your prepared spells here:

Spells. You can regain some of your magical energy by studying your spellbook. You don’t need to have the spell prepared. The rulebook explains rituals.

Ritual Casting. You can cast a wizard spell as a ritual if that spell has the ritual tag and you have the spell in your spellbook.

Arcane Recovery. You can regain some of your magical energy by studying your spellbook. Once per day during a short rest, you can recover one 1st-level spell slot.
High Elf
Elves are a people of otherworldly grace, long-lived and passionate. In the earliest days of the multiverse, the first high elves settled in fey crossings, places where the natural world and a fantastic realm of magic and emotion, known as the Feywild, touch and overlap. The high elves mystically took on characteristics blending both realms. Your facility with language and your innate understanding of useful magic are part of that mystical adaptation.

As a high elf, you have the following traits.

Darkvision. You can see in dim light within 60 feet of you as if it were bright light and in darkness in that radius as if it were dim light. You discern colors in that darkness only as shades of gray.

Fey Ancestry. You have advantage on saving throws against effects that have the fey trait and a saving throw against them is made of 1 or less.

Cantrip. Your cantrip (listed above) reflects the innate magic of a high elf, not your wizardly study.

Your Sage Background
Your parents identified your magical talent early in your long elven life and arranged for you to be apprenticed to a kindly wizard in the city of Neverwinter. You excelled at your studies and forged friendships and rivalries with other apprentices. You always had a particular knack for wielding flashy, energetic forces, and you focused your study on the school of evocation.

Your background shaped your character in some important ways.

A secret sought by a colleague drives you. Your skill proficiencies in Arcana and History also reflect your upbringing, studying the nature of magic and the great wizards of days past who wielded it.

After graduating from your apprenticeship, you and your peers went your separate ways to focus on your own studies. Recently, you received a letter from one of your colleagues, pointing you toward a temple to the dragon god Bahamut, who is a patron of heroes and a tragic news: your friend died under mysterious circumstances.

This Elder Runara can set you on the path to discovering the knowledge you seek. Perhaps drawing from a real-world culture or a work of literature, you decide your character's height, weight, age, and coloration (eyes, hair, and skin). You can use the art on this page for inspiration or choose your own direction. You also might want to give your character a memorable physical characteristic, such as a scar, a limp, spectacles, or a tattoo.

Flesh out your character's personality, and read about your character's alignment in the rulebook (you may choose a different alignment from among the options there). The goal is to choose traits and mannerisms for your character that you'll enjoy.

Making the Character Yours
Follow these steps to make this character uniquely yours:

1. Choose a name and write it in the “Character Name” space on the front of this sheet. Your character's name can be anything you like, perhaps drawing from a real-world culture or a work of literature.
2. Decide what you look like and determine your character’s gender. You decide your character's height, weight, age, and coloration (eyes, hair, and skin). You can use the art on this page for inspiration or choose your own direction. You also might want to give your character a memorable physical characteristic, such as a scar, a limp, spectacles, or a tattoo.
3. Flesh out your character’s personality, and read about your character's alignment in the rulebook (you may choose a different alignment from among the options there). The goal is to choose traits and mannerisms for your character that you’ll enjoy.

Gaining Levels
The DM will tell you when you reach 2nd level and then 3rd level. When you reach a new level, you gain the features below for that level.

Hit Dice and Hit Points
With each level you gain, you gain one additional Hit Die (d6), which you can use to heal yourself when you take a short rest (explained in the rulebook). When you level up, add the new Hit Die to the Hit Dice box on this sheet, and add 1d6 + 2 to your hit point maximum.

Spellcasting Advancement
You gain access to more spells as you gain levels. You can prepare a number of spells equal to your level + your Intelligence modifier, as shown in the Spellcasting table. You also gain more spell slots.

Adding Spells to Your Spellbook. Each time you gain a wizard level, you can add two wizard spells of your choice to your spellbook, chosen from the wizard spell list below. Each of these spells must be of a level for which you have spell slots. On your adventures, you might also find scrolls or books containing other spells you can add to your spellbook.

Copying a Spell into the Book. When you find a wizard spell, you can add it to your spellbook if it is of a level for which you have spell slots and if you can spare the time to decipher and copy it.

For each level of the spell, the process takes 2 hours and requires 50 gp. The cost represents material components you expend as you experiment with the spell to master it, as well as the fine inks you need to record it. Once you have spent this time and money, you can prepare the spell just like your other spells.

2nd-Level Features
Evocation Savant. The gold and time you must spend to copy an evocation spell into your spellbook is halved.

Sculpt Spells. When you cast an evocation spell that affects other creatures you can see, you can choose a number of them equal to 1 + the spell’s level. The chosen creatures automatically succeed on their saving throws against the spell, and they take no damage if they would normally take half damage from it.

3rd-Level Features
Arcane Recovery. You can now recover two 1st-level spell slots, or a single 2nd-level spell slot (your choice).

Spells. You can now prepare and cast 2nd-level spells.
